Building communities
free of domestic violence
and sexual assault

Thank you for all the things you do
to help!

Dear Community

I'm pleased to present a summary of 2009 activities here at SafeHouse Center. As you'll see, it was a busy year, a challenging year, and a year in which we saw demand for our services increase, at times dramatically.

We were able to meet that demand thanks to the extraordinary efforts of our staff and the extraordinary generosity of our supporters. We are deeply grateful to everyone whose name appears on our annual Donor Roll in this newsletter. Without your support, we could not continue meeting the needs of all the survivors who seek our services.

Every day, we hear stories of difficulty and challenges, but one of the things that makes our work so satisfying is the fact that we KNOW we're making a difference. We hear the difference we are making in the hope and gratitude voiced by survivors, from notes we receive, and from the survivors who come in with donations for other survivors.

These thank-you's come from women as well as children and men. The survivors are of all ages, races, backgrounds, and religions. Some of them are affluent and some live in poverty. And all are a reminder that no one is immune from domestic violence and sexual assault.

One of our survivors came in last month, with a young son and her new baby; she was bringing donations of kitchen items. She asked if she could speak to me for a minute, and shared her story of coming to the shelter a few years ago with her son, after her soon to be ex-husband had again become violent. She didn't want her son to continue to live in an abusive home, and had nowhere to go. She is back on her feet now, with a new life, and a husband who loves and cherishes her, her son, and their baby. Her gratitude was so heartfelt, it was a powerful reminder that the work we do makes a difference every day.

On the following pages, you will find some of the notes and messages we have received. We thought it was important to share these messages. After all, they're written to you as well. Because, without you, we couldn't be the SafeHouse Center that people throughout Washtenaw County have come to know and trust.

Because of you, we can offer a safe, secure, caring refuge—and a second chance at life—for survivors of domestic violence and sexual abuse.

So, on behalf of all the women, children, and men we assisted in 2009, a warm thank you!

Sincerely,

Barbara Niess May

Are you interested in learning more about SafeHouse Center?

Would your colleagues or employees benefit from knowing about the life-saving services SafeHouse Center provides to nearly 5,000 women, men, and children each year in Washtenaw County? Have you ever wondered what shelter life was like for an adult or child resident? Invite SafeHouse Center to your workplace and we would be happy to share with you the incredible work we do each day, thanks to the support of our community. In one hour we will show you with photos, testimonials, and myth-busters the journey of a survivor from a place of abuse and fear to a place of freedom and healing. We welcome the opportunity to visit your workplace during a lunch hour or small group training session. This is not a fundraising event; we simply wish to share with you the work that we do. You will leave inspired and informed!

*Because of SafeHouse
I am a totally different person; a better person, a stronger person.*

*Volunteering at SafeHouse has become a passion of mine. I tell anyone who will listen about how we work every day to empower survivors. I have learned first hand how a non-judgmental
and caring attitude can help
a survivor to feel comforted
so the healing process starts right away.*

Denim Day Art Show

In honor of Sexual Assault
Awareness Month
April / 2010

SafeHouse Center's Teen Voice program and key community partners who respond to sexual assault in Washtenaw County teamed up to bring a Denim Day Art Show in honor of Sexual Assault Awareness month.

With sponsored space at the Ann Arbor Art Center's Spotlight Gallery, the exhibition of Denim Jean Art served to highlight the myths and misconceptions that perpetuate sexual assault as well as common emotions and reactions following an assault. A Community Wall featured jeans decorated by community partners who join SafeHouse Center in responding to sexual assault in Washtenaw County. These jeans reflected the missions and experiences of our partner agencies while helping sexual assault survivors.

Taken as a whole, the Denim Jean Art reflected ongoing efforts continuously made to spread awareness, to break the silence, and to empower all of us to unite together in an effort to end sexual violence. Thank you to all of the participants and to everyone who came to the show!
