LGBTQIA+ SUPPORT GROUP

SafeHouse Center welcomes LGBTQIA+ survivors of all gender identities who have experienced or are experiencing intimate partner violence and/or sexual abuse to our new support group coming Spring 2017.

SafeHouse seeks to provide a safe, non-judgmental, and confidential space where survivors can find support and healing from abuse.

Some areas of focus will include:

- LGBT-specific domestic violence and sexual assault information
 - Learning coping strategies
 - Safety-planning (trans-friendly tool)
 - Identifying healthy relationships
 - Self-esteem
 - Self-care

Building communities free of domestic violence and sexual assault

For more information or screening, please contact: adrianam@safehousecenter.org or 734-973-0242 ext. 205